Garden Installation Friday May 12, 2017, from 6:00 to 9:00 PM, The University Church, 4747 Hill Ave, Toledo, OH 43615

The program features an unveiling of a community art project funded in part by the Ohio Arts Council. More than 40 school children from Reynolds Elementary and the Natural Science Technology Center worked together with Multifaith Council (MFC) members, members of The University Church (TUC), and local artist Vickie Dougherty to create "The Story of Pollination". The program will include the unveiling of a hand crafted, hand painted convertible picnic table and new signage in the TUC garden, participants will receive a native plant and a hand painted clay pot, open art tables, garden tour of the TUC facility, free food and flowers, and the installation of pollinator signage throughout the garden.

The event is free and open to the public.

JD Carter Garden Installation - Saturday, June 3rd - 10am - 1pm.
