

17th Annual MultiFaith Banquet: Harmony in Diversity

St. George's Antiochian Orthodox Cathedral, 3754 Woodley Rd, Toledo, OH 43606

Sunday, April 29, 2018, 3 – 7 PM

Tentative Program Schedule:

3:00 PM – Site Tours / Meditation [optional] / Youth discussion

4:00 PM – 4:45 - Faith Storytellers

5:00 PM - Welcomes, Heroes of Compassion

5:30 PM - Islamic Prayers / Catered Dinner

6:00 PM – Keynote Speaker, Rev. Otis Gordon

6:55 PM - Sending Forth

Keynote Speaker: “Building Bridges to Hope in the Faith Communities”

Rev Otis J. Gordon, Jr, is the Senior Pastor of Warren AME Church (2003-Present). Prior to his tenure at Warren AME in Toledo, he served as Senior Pastor in several other Ohio Churches. He received his Bachelor’s Degree from the University of Akron in 1983, his Masters of Divinity degree from Ashland Theological Seminary in 2003 and his Doctor of Ministry Degree, specializing in Spiritual Formation, in 2009.

Warren AME Church is a part of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Founded in 1847, Warren is the oldest African-American church in Northwest Ohio.

St. George's Antiochian Orthodox Cathedral:

St. George Orthodox Cathedral is the Cathedral for the Antiochian Diocese of Toledo and the Midwest. A small group of Syrian and Lebanese families who emigrated from the old country during the first two decades of this century established in the church in 1913. The Ladies’ Benevolent Society, which is preparing and serving the MultiFaith Banquet meal, has been in existence since in 1915. Father Michael Shaheen is the current Dean and Pastor.

Registration is now open. Tickets $25 Adult; $15 Youth/Student 12 – 21.

Advanced registration is necessary. Registration closes April 16. After April 16, Ticket prices are $30 Adult; $20 Youth, if tickets are still available.